

WBHS AVID Application

(Advancement Via Individual Determination)

AVID is an elective class for students preparing for admission to a four-year university. The curriculum features writing, inquiry, collaboration, reading, note taking, study skills, and college/career/motivational activities. Students meet with representatives from numerous colleges, and AVID classes take field trips to different campuses. Requirements for applications include satisfactory citizenship, good attendance, registration in an honors course for 9th grade at WBHS, passing MEAP scores in 6th and 7th grades, a GPA of 2.5-3.5, and completion of this application, including the essay. All applications are due in counseling by Monday, January 13th.
